

Forbes

The 35 Best Producers Of Amarone

Ca' La Bionda - Located in Marano, in the heart of the Classico zone, this is an estate that deserves to be better known, as many insiders will tell you. Established in 1902 by Pietro Castellani, the winery has remained with the family; Alessandro Castellani is the enologist at present. The signature wine here is the single vineyard Ravizzòl Amarone, a wine of great fruit presence and impeccable structure; the vines are between 50 and 70 years old, and the wine is matured in 3000 liter casks for 36 months. Also notable here is the single vineyard Casal Vegri Valpolicella Superiore, a wine that is often at its best 10-12 years after the harvest.

Tom Hyland